

Behind the name

Rasmussen, the Ross River and surrounding areas are home to nearly half of all known butterfly species in Australia, including the 'Wattle Blue'.

Butterflies also signify a new beginning, change, nature and transformation.

The meaning, symbology and cultural significance associated with butterflies resonate with the vision for Bluewattle, Rasmussen and the spirit of Townsville itself.